THE FEAST OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD:
Acts 1:1-11, Ephesians 1:17-23, and Mark 16:15-20

Besides Mother's Day, today is also the feast of the Ascension of our Lord (a feast sometimes confused with the assumption of Mary, which is celebrated on August 15). This feast was always celebrated 40 days after Easter until 2000, when it was moved to the nearest Sunday. The importance is not when the Ascension happened, but the lessons it teaches us. I want to mention three of these lessons.

First, we receive an understanding of who Jesus is. I was lately struck by the image of Jesus sitting at the right hand of the Father. We say it in the Creed every Sunday. Paul also tells us of Jesus seated at God's right hand in today's second reading. Many people here remember when children were taught to stand up if an adult entered the room. Even today no one in a big corporation would think of walking into their boss's office, pulling up a chair, and sitting, unless they were invited to (and certainly they would not move the chair next to their boss). Certainly, in the culture of Jesus, people stood in the presence of a person who was their superior. When Jesus entered the presence of His Father, He sat at His right hand, a symbol of equality with His Father. That, of course, is our theology: Jesus is God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father (consubstantial means he is of the same substance, the same divine nature, as the Father).

Second, the Ascension gives us an understanding of our own destiny. God didn't put us in this world to live forever; He made us to be with Him forever. Where He has gone, we hope to follow. St. Augustine says, "Out of compassion for us He descended from heaven, and although He ascended alone, we also ascend, because we are in Him by grace." In the reading for the feast of the Ascension, Jesus said to His apostles at the Last Supper, "I go to prepare a place for you and then I will come again and take you to Myself, so that where I am, there you may be also". (John 14:2-3)

Finally, the Ascension also gives us an understanding of our responsibilities. He said to the Apostles, "You will be my witnesses." Indeed they were, but there are still many others in the world today who need to know about Jesus. Who will proclaim the good news of God's love to them? Not dead apostles. Living people must proclaim the good news, and it's not only up to priests and nuns. There aren't enough of us to go around. Christ's plan for spreading His message is to have His followers pass it on to others, and He didn't have a backup plan.

In the Gospel reading from Mark, Jesus further explains to His followers before His Ascension into heaven that they have a responsibility, one they could not escape. We share that responsibility. It is part of our calling and what our lives as Catholics and Christians should and must be.

When we go out to do the work of God, Jesus is always with us, and He works with us and through us. This is the pattern for all we do, our sense of ministry and mission. A wise philosopher once stated that signs are meant to follow believers, not believers following signs. The final verse of the Gospel — "But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the word through accompanying signs." — continues to this very day. That is the message of everything we have heard in Holy Scripture today, and it is the message we should understand every time we are exposed to Holy Scripture.

One Mother's Day morning, two young children told their mother to stay in bed. As she lay there looking forward to breakfast in bed, the smell of bacon floated up from the kitchen. Finally, the children called her to come downstairs. She found them both sitting at the table eating bacon and eggs. "As a surprise for Mother's Day," one explained, "we decided to fix our own breakfast." That's sometimes the way life goes for a mother. Happy Mother's Day to all of the mothers who are with us today. Thank you for choosing the vocation you did and for the dedication and love you freely gave in following that vocation.

On this Mother's Day, let us honor our mothers and mother figures for their love, sacrifices, and faith. Let us thank them for being our first teachers of the faith, showing us the face of God's love, and guiding us on our path. Let us honor and thank those mothers who are still with us and those who have gone before us to prepare a place for us. Let us also remember to live out the mission that Jesus has given us, to be His witnesses to the ends of the earth. Let us be inspired by the example of our mothers, and let us rely on the power of the Holy Spirit, who empowers us to fulfill this mission.

May the Lord bless all our mothers, bless us, and help us to be His witnesses in the world, as our mothers have taught us how to love by loving us. Let us, ask the good Lord that we may teach others how to sow the seeds of love. Amen.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: We learn how Peter and the apostles prayed for guidance from the Lord in choosing the right successor to Judas. What difficult decision in your life could you turn to the Lord for help in deciding?

Second Reading: John teaches us that God's love remains in those who acknowledge that Jesus is the Son of God. When are you most comfortable sharing your faith with others?

Gospel: Jesus prays to the Father to keep His followers united in faith, protected from the evil one, and consecrated in the truth. Have you ever thought that Jesus actually prays these things for you? ©LPi

Family Self-Sufficiency is one of Catholic Charities most effective and beloved programs. Gail* is a 2019 graduate from the program. She shared, "When I first started, my exact thoughts were, 'This is a program for people trying to keep it together.' It challenges the participant to set goals and make game plans to achieve them while creating a custom work plan that caters to the specific life circumstances." She goes on to say, "To date, I have accomplished every goal that my case worker and I set." Since leaving the program, Gail continues to work toward goals based on the near- and long-term needs for her children and herself. *Name changed to protect privacy.

BABY BOTTLE PROJECT

May 11-12 Through June 14-15

All Souls will again participate in the Baby Bottle Project to benefit the Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland, a non-profit organization that assists mothers and families experiencing crisis pregnancies by offering emotional, financial, material, and spiritual support through counseling, clothing and monetary provisions, prayer, and other aid. Each year, the Women's Center sees over 5,000 expectant mothers in their three locations, one of which is located at Our Lady of Knock in Calumet City.

They estimate to have saved over 40,000 babies and their mothers from abortion since opening in 1984.

Please take a Baby Bottle home with you from the Narthex this weekend, May 11-12, fill it with your spare change, and return Father's Day weekend, June 14-15. If you are making a donation by check, please make it payable to The Women's Center. You may also visit GoTWC.org or call 773-794-1313 to donate.

This is a simple but crucial fundraising effort for The Women's Centers. Please note that the baby bottles cost nearly $1 per bottle and are recycled afterwards, so please be sure to return them at the end of the project. Thank you for helping to defend life, and remember to keep all pro-life undertakings in your prayers.

All Souls Catholic Parish Wishes You a

Happy Mother's Day

During the season of Easter, what a great time to remember our mothers and ask for God's blessing on them. It is God who ultimately gave us life. It is through God's unselfish love—mirrored in our mothers' willingness to associate their love with God's and take the risk to love us into life—that we have the opportunity to live. We remember our mothers and mother figures this Mother's Day with much love. Let us pray for each of them:

Heavenly Father,
from the beginning you have chosen to entrust
the human person to mothers in a special way.
We thank and praise you for the gift of mothers;
for their tenderness, care, and compassion,
for their intuition and encouragement,
for commitment and sacrifice.
Bless all mothers this day.
Keep, strengthen, and refresh them
in your loving care.
May they be blessed by our open-hearted
love and gratitude.
Amen.

COLOR

7th Sunday of Easter • John 17:11b-19

GOSPEL

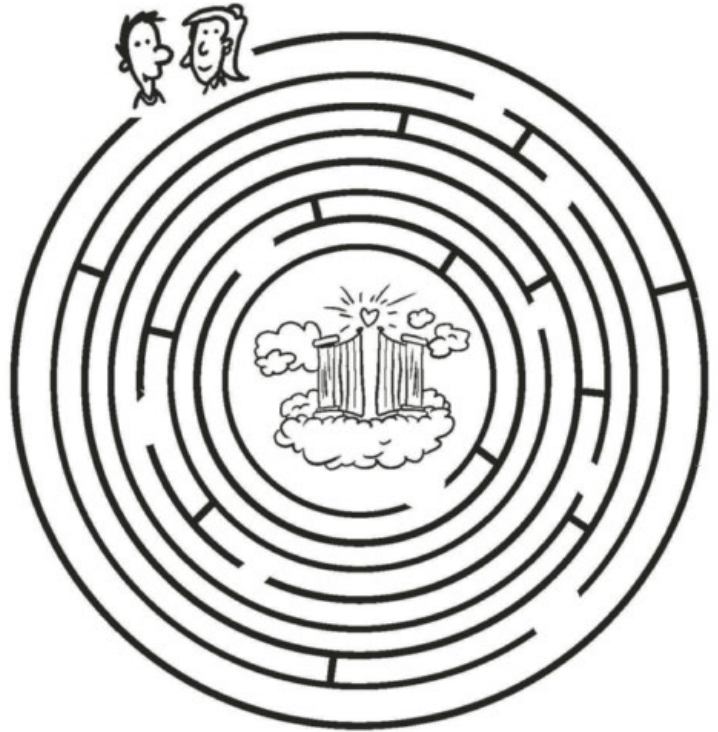

Every day when you are in school, your teachers help you learn. You get better at following directions. You get better at listening. You get better at remembering what you learned. Over the school year, your teacher gets you ready for the next grade. In today's Gospel, Jesus prayed for his friends. Jesus spent the last three years teaching his friends how to follow God and how to love others. His time to teach was almost over. Jesus prayed that his friends would stay close to God. Jesus asked God to protect them as they shared his teachings with the whole world.

PRAYER

God, help me to learn all that I can from Jesus and my teachers.

PUZZLE

Find the path to Heaven.

MISSION

Make a card for each of your teachers. Color a picture on the cover. Write a nice message on the inside. Thank your teachers for helping you learn, and sign your name. Then deliver your cards with a smile.

DRAW

Draw a picture of someone who teaches you about Jesus.

Be There When God Moves

THE CHURCH WILL NEVER BE THE SAME

July 17-21, 2024, tens of thousands of passionate Catholics will experience an outpouring of grace on a scale this generation has never seen. This historic moment is called the 10th National Eucharistic Congress. Catholics from every corner of the U.S. will be in Indianapolis for this transformative gathering, and YOU are invited to represent our parish at this pivotal moment!

Whether you join us for the full experience or one day, you'll enjoy world-class teaching from some of the most trusted Catholic voices in the United States. Come encounter and worship Jesus in a new way, and be anointed to share those graces with our community when you return home.

More than ever, you will be proud to be Catholic and excited about the future of the Church in America.

Scan the code to learn more about the event and explore the full schedule for each day. The more people who register at once, the lower the cost becomes! Contact our parish office for more information about registering with your fellow parishioners.
