OUR VISION

All Souls Catholic Parish aspires to be an inviting faith community where members and newcomers alike are engaged, inspired, and spiritually nourished among friends that become family.

OUR MISSION

As a welcoming and united parish, the All Souls Family of Faith is committed to loving God, loving our neighbors, and inviting others to know and serve Jesus Christ and recognize Him in one another.

Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: The Rich Young Man

There was a man who loved gold. Then he inherited a fortune. With joy, he redecorated his bedroom. He put up gold parchment wallpaper, hung yellow curtains, and had a golden-colored rug and a yellow bedspread. He even bought some yellow pajamas. But then he got sick and came down with, of all things, yellow jaundice. His wife called the doctor who made a house call and went up to that bedroom for an examination. The doctor stayed up there a long while. When he came down, the wife asked, "How is he?" "Don't know," said the doctor. "I couldn't find him." Indeed, many people today are absorbed in and lost in a world of greed and materialism.

Today's Gospel (Mk 10:17-30) presents us with the profound encounter between Jesus and the rich young man—a narrative that invites us to reflect deeply on our relationship with material wealth and our call to discipleship. As the rich young man approaches Jesus, he embodies a sincere desire for eternal life. He runs to Jesus, kneels before Him, and asks, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" This moment beautifully captures the essence of our human longing for something greater beyond the temporal pleasures of this world.

We might cringe when we hear this story because it is sad — this man was so close to becoming an active disciple of Jesus but instead turned away. We also might cringe because it could be deeply applicable to our lives. Jesus states, "It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." One of the metaphors for the "eye of a needle" was a tight passageway into Jerusalem that people had to enter to get into the city. For their camels to pass through, they had to remove whatever the camel was carrying, only then, could they enter.

If we look at our own lives, we can most likely think of something that we tightly carry with us. Maybe it is possessions — material goods or money — like Jesus references in our Gospel. Or perhaps it is something less material — like status, pride, or control. As we go through life, it can be hard not to cling tightly to things of the world. But what will happen when we reach the gate of heaven? All of our "stuff" won't fit into the narrow gate. Jesus doesn't want our stuff — our job promotions, our designer homes, or our bank accounts. He just wants us. So, we need to be willing to strip those things from our lives in order to reach Him.

Later in the Gospel, Jesus' disciples asked a question we all might be thinking, "Then who can be saved?" How can anyone make it to heaven if we all are attached to things in our everyday lives that we put in front of Him? Jesus tells us, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." It is only through Him that we will reach eternal life.

Our first reading (Wis 7:7-11) reminds us that through prayer, we will gain the virtues to persevere through this life — "I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me." If we ask, we shall receive. And if we remain close to Jesus, He will show us the way.

It is also through opportunity. As our second reading (Heb 4:12-13) states, "Everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of Him." Jesus knows exactly what we struggle with, and He gives us countless opportunities in life to choose Him, to overcome our attachments, and surrender. It could be a tragic life event, a rough week, an unexpected expense that depletes our savings, or the loss of material goods.

These moments are all opportunities that Jesus allows in our lives for our sanctification. It is our job not to waste those moments.

We can also create opportunities throughout our day to help ourselves detach from whatever is holding us back from Jesus. Jesus' recommendation to this man was to sell all his possessions and give them to the poor. While He may not be calling us to do that, we can still give to the point where it makes us uncomfortable. And it is in that discomfort that we put more trust in Christ that helps us to grow closer to Jesus, that we turn and follow Him more intentionally.

Recall that Jesus already knew the life of this man in our Gospel, and it said that He "loved him." No matter where we are on our journey as disciples, know that Jesus knows everything about us and still radically loves us. There is nothing we can do to make Him love us more or less. However, there is much we can do to love Him more.

May we consider what is holding us back from radically loving Jesus in return. Pray for the grace to overcome, don't pass by the opportunities to surrender and create moments to detach. It might seem difficult, but the outcome will be more than we could have ever imagined — peace on earth and treasure in heaven.

World Mission Sunday Domingo Mundial de las Misiones

OCTOBER 20, 2024
 Go and invite everyone to the banquet
 Vayan e inviten a todos al banquete
 (cf. Mt 22:1-14)
 WeAreMissionary.org

Next weekend, we celebrate World Mission Sunday, a powerful reminder of our call to be missionary disciples. This year's theme, "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," emphasizes our common call to bring God's love and message to the ends of the earth. On this day we reflect on and support the Church's missionary efforts while also recommitting ourselves to the same mission. The contributions given for the World Mission Sunday collection are crucial for sustaining the Church's work in over 1,150 territories where the Church is young or struggling. Let us prepare our hearts and minds to celebrate together.

Today's Readings

First Reading: I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. I preferred her to scepter and throne, and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her. (Wis 7:7-8)

Psalm: Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy! (Ps 90)

Second Reading: Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword. (Heb 4:12)

Gospel: "Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." (Mk 10:21)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. ©LPi

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: We hear how Solomon prayed for and received the virtues of prudence and wisdom. What are you praying to the Lord for these days?

Second Reading: Hebrews teaches us that "the word of God" knows and understands what is in our hearts and minds. Do you find this comforting or unsettling?

Gospel: Jesus taught his followers that excessive wealth and possessions can impact one's priorities in life. What are some practical ways to keep Jesus as a top priority in your life?

AN INVITATION TO THE ALL SOULS DAY MASS CELEBRATION

To all our family of faith at All Souls Parish, our friends, and well-wishers, we extend an invitation to celebrate Mass on All Souls Day 2024, here at St. Ann Church, as we light a candle for all those who have gone before us. The Feast of All Souls is one way of celebrating those who rest in God's loving embrace and rest within our hearts and minds. It is a special way to remember them in the light of our all-loving God. We will celebrate at the 4:00 p.m. afternoon Mass, which is also the Sunday Vigil Mass that weekend.

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us."
Hebrews 12:1

There is a saying that "time heals all wounds." Even after many years, the loss of someone we love and cherish can still bring about an acute sense of sadness. But it is in that deep sadness that we can also experience gratitude to God for the gifts and blessings of those who have gone before us. On All Souls Day, November 2, we in the Catholic Church remember and celebrate our ongoing connectedness with those who have made their transition. Through these reflections, we can find comfort and gain strength by gathering with others who have also experienced a profound loss. We can also find comfort in the words of the Eucharistic Prayer: "In Him who rose from the dead, our hope of resurrection has dawned. The sadness of death gives way to the bright promise of immortality."

Please be assured of our continued prayers and spiritual support as we prepare to celebrate All Souls Day (our parish's namesake), both as a universal Catholic Church and as the faith family of All Souls Catholic Parish. Throughout November, you will be held in our thoughts and prayers.

As an act of honor and tribute, we ask that you bring a picture of the loved ones you have lost to be placed on our Table of Remembrance in the Church, which can include all deceased loved ones, regardless of when they passed away. These pictures will be on display during the whole month of November. (Please sign the back of those photos, along with your telephone number, so we can call you to pick them up when the time of remembrance has concluded.) Parishioners are also invited to write the names of the deceased in our Book of the Dead located on the podium at the back of the church.

If you have a family member who passed away on or after November 2, 2023 and was NOT buried through All Souls Parish/St. Ann Church, please call the parish office with the name(s) of the deceased no later than October 28. Their names will be read at the All Souls Day Mass on November 2. If your loved one was buried through All Souls Parish, you need not call as we will have his/her name in our records.

Yours in Christ,

MISSION

Make a list of things that are special to you. If God asked you to give away your favorite toy or game to someone who's poor, could you do it? Be honest with God, and ask him to help you love him more than anything.

GOSPEL

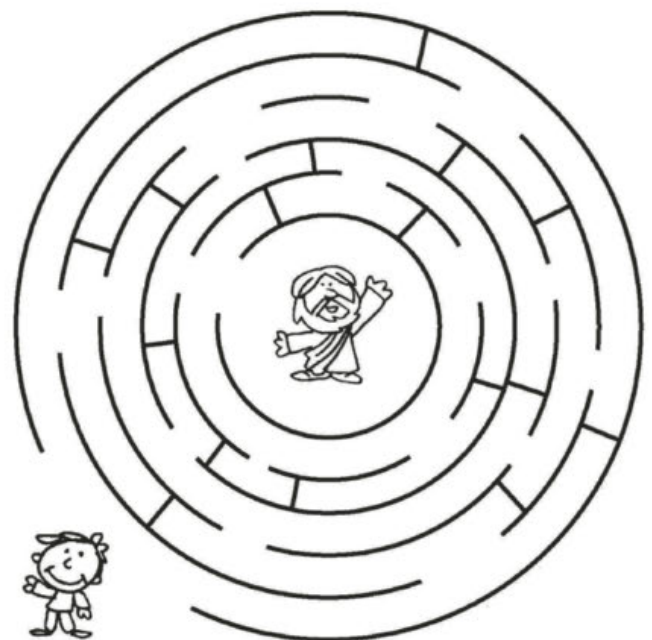

The man in today's Gospel reading thought he was pretty good. He had been careful to obey most of God's rules. But he forgot the most important rule of all—love God with all your heart, mind, soul and strength. When Jesus asked the man to give away all he owned, the man went away sad. He loved money more than he loved God.
