FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

We have arrived at the powerful season of Advent, a season to prepare with awe and gratitude for the Feast of the Incarnation of Jesus, born to us as Savior and Brother. A season to prepare for His return at the end of time. It is also a moment to remind ourselves that our individual judgment day is coming, too — the moment when we will be called to give an account for all the love God has shown us and the gifts He has given us during our lifetime.

As we gather on this First Sunday of Advent, we stand at the threshold of a new liturgical year, embarking on a journey of reflection and expectation. The Gospel today (Luke 21:25-28, 34-36) presents us with a vivid scene that can evoke awe and perhaps anxiety: “There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations.” These words conjure images of cosmic upheaval but also point us toward a profound truth. The imagery before us is not merely about the end-of-times scenarios or destruction, but more about transformation and the unveiling of God's kingdom. It is an invitation to awaken from spiritual slumber and to be attentive to the divine signs around us. In every age, the people of God are challenged to find hope amidst the turmoil, to see God's hand at work even in distress.

Advent is the time of patient waiting, of hopeful watching. Jesus calls us to be vigilant, saying, “Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things.” This vigilance is not about fear but faithfulness. It is about keeping our hearts open to God's presence and recognizing the sacred in the midst of the ordinary.

In these weeks leading to Christmas, we are given an opportunity to prepare, not only for the celebration of Jesus' birth, but also for His continual coming into our lives. How can we make room in our hearts and lives for Christ? How can we cultivate a spirit of readiness and anticipation?

This Advent, let us focus on being present—present with God and with one another. In a world that often feels chaotic and uncertain, we are reminded today that Christ comes to bring peace, instill courage, and offer redemption. Our faith empowers us to lift our heads high, for redemption is near, as the sunrise dispels the night.

Let us nurture hope by embracing simplicity and compassion, seeking the light of Christ in our homes, workplaces, and communities. May our prayers and actions align us with God's kingdom, so that the celebration of Christmas becomes a true encounter with the divine.

As we light the first candle of Advent, representing hope, let it be a symbol of our readiness and desire to live in God's light. May this flame guide us, dispelling darkness and igniting a deeper faith within us.

Finally, during Advent, we as Christian stewards must ask ourselves some hard questions. Am I staying faithful to my prayer life? Am I using my energy and skills to serve others? Am I overly concerned about material gain? Am I relying on my “stuff” or my investments as my source of comfort or security? Am I living for the moment or for the coming of the Lord?

In this holy season, let us prepare our hearts to welcome Jesus anew, embracing the Advent call to watch, wait, and hope with joy and trust. Amen.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today's Readings

First Reading: “In those days, in that time, I will raise up for David a just shoot ; he shall do what is right and just in the land.” (Jer 33:15)

Psalm: To you, O Lord, I lift my soul. (Ps 25)

Second Reading: May the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we have for you, so as to strengthen your hearts, to be blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his holy ones. (I Thes 3:12-13)

Gospel: “But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand.” (Lk 21:28)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. ©LPi

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: The prophet Jeremiah speaks of God's promise to save Jerusalem so all can “dwell safely” in the land. Where in your life do you feel the safest?

Second Reading: In preparation for the return of Jesus, Paul prayed that the believers in Thessalonica would love one another and conduct themselves in a way pleasing to God. As we enter the season of Advent, what could you do to actively prepare for the return of Jesus?

Gospel: Jesus forewarns his disciples not to let the daily anxieties of life distract them from the coming day of his return. Who helps you when you are overcome with anxiety?

DECEMBER 3 2024

After Black Friday and Cyber Monday comes #GIVINGTUESDAY, the global day of giving that will take place this year on Tuesday, December 3.

Coming off the success of our Furnace Fund drive, it's easy to forget that we have other maintenance needs at All Souls. But the good news is that the estimate for repairs to the roof of St. Ann Church is a mere $9,582.00! Wouldn't it be amazing if we could raise that in just one day and not have to worry about the roof becoming a bigger issue?

So our 2024 All Souls Giving Tuesday campaign is called "Raise for The Roof." Our goal is to bring in as much money as possible in 24 hours to be able to cover the entire repair bill.

The idea behind Giving Tuesday is to harness the giving power of a large amount of people—many smaller gifts can add up quickly and lessen the necessity for us to find larger donations. Can you help us spread the word? Tell a friend or two about Giving Tuesday, explain our hopes for the day, and ask them to join in! If enough people make even just a $50 donation, we will be well on our way in no time at all! Please support All Souls/St. Ann and join us for this 24-hour global day of generosity. Don't want to wait? No worries, the link is already open and waiting. Thank you!

Dear Friends in Christ,

On the Second Sunday of Advent, parishes throughout our Archdiocese will participate in the Retirement Fund for Religious collection, an annual appeal that benefits nearly 24,000 elderly sisters, brothers, and religious order priests nationwide.

I am grateful for the significant influence that women and men religious, both past and present, have had on our individual faith journeys. Their faithful and devoted service has impacted our archdiocese, inspiring and guiding us as we continue to grow in faith.

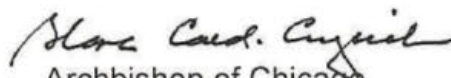

We are called to recognize that most senior vowed religious worked many years for little pay, leaving their religious communities with a shortage of retirement savings. Rising healthcare costs and decreased income compound the challenge to meet day-to-day needs for aging members, including their medical expenses, nursing assistance and other necessities.

Your generous contributions to the Retirement Fund for Religious provide vital financial support, enabling religious communities to care for their aging members.

I am aware that you are frequently asked to support many worthy causes. I invite you to contribute what you can at masses the weekend of December 7-8. Most importantly, please keep all our men and women religious in your prayers. Rest assured that they are praying for you.

May God's abundant blessings be upon you and your loved ones during this Holy Season of Advent. With kind regards I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

WHAT ARE WE WAITING FOR?

Jesus is coming, and Advent is intended to be a season of preparation, waiting, and longing for the arrival of the Messiah. Advent invites us to grow in spiritual wholeness by entering more frequently into silence, prayer, reflection, Scripture, and the sacramental life of our faith. But how can we achieve this during such a busy commercial season?

Through Scripture, stories, humor, prayer, and song, the mission will focus on different ways to prepare for Christ's coming, how to be more aware of the hopeful longing and joyous expectation of the season and help increase our desire for God by discovering Christ's presence in our lives right now.

Come early and enjoy a cup of soup! Doors will open at 5:00 p.m. Bring a friend!
