SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

The readings for the Second Week of Advent offer both encouragement and challenge during this brief but important season of the liturgical year. Recall from last week that the purpose of this season is reflection on and preparation for the two “comings” of Christ – His coming as a baby on the great feast of Christmas, and the anticipation of His second coming at the end of time.

Our first reading (Bar 5:1-9) is a wonderful reminder that God has already triumphed over sin and death and that we, His faithful disciples, will live in the light of His glory one day. “Up, Jerusalem! Stand upon the heights; look to the east and see your children gathered from the east and the west at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that they are remembered by God. . . . For God has commanded that every loft mountain be made low . . . that Israel may advance secure in the glory of God . . . for God is leading Israel in joy by the light of His glory, with His mercy and justice for company.”

Until He comes again, we must remain faithful to Him as true disciples and good stewards of all the gifts He has given us. While it can be tempting to give in to the materialism and calls for self-indulgence that surround us, (ironically more than ever at this time of year), this reading calls us back to the spiritual reality that this life is passing and that we are made for eternal life with God. We are called to prepare for eternal life by the way in which we use our time, our talents, and our treasure now.

In the second reading (Phil 1:4-6, 8-11), Paul gives us a pep talk as we make our stewardship journey, and we modern-day disciples can take heart in his words. He tells us, “I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Christ Jesus.” Paul reminds us of two important realities that should greatly encourage us. First, that the stewardship way of life is very much a journey. We don’t have to have every aspect of our life perfectly nailed down; we are all “works in progress,” called simply to take one step at a time closer to Christ. Second, it is God who started this good work in us — on the day of our Baptism. He cares deeply about this journey of ours and He will give us all the grace and strength we need to stay faithful to Him and continue growing in love and imitation of Christ.

The Gospel reading (Lk 3:1-6) shows us how personal and detailed is God’s love for humanity, as He prepared the way for Christ’s coming among us. We are told the precise time, place, and person—John the Baptist—He appointed to announce the arrival of our Savior. Through John, we are told how to celebrate to the fullest this first “coming” on the feast of Christmas and how to prepare for the second coming — through repentance.

Advent is a time of active waiting, a moment for us to participate in God’s work by preparing ourselves to receive His Son. As we journey through this season, let us heed John’s call to repentance and strive to embody the love and holiness of which St. Paul speaks. May we embrace the hope and promise of Baruch, knowing that God is ever-present and preparing something beautiful for each one of us.

Let us pray for the grace to welcome the transformation that God desires for us during this season of hope. May we, like John the Baptist, become heralds of Christ’s coming, making straight His paths in our hearts and in the world around us. Amen.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today’s Readings

First Reading: “For God will show all the earth your splendor: you will be named by God forever the peace of justice, the glory of God’s worship.” (Bar 5:3-4)

Psalm: The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy. (Ps 126)

Second Reading: So that you may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ. (Phil 1:10-11)

Gospel: “The winding roads shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth, and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.” (Lk 3:5-6)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. ©LPi

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: The prophet Baruch offers the Israelites in Babylonian exile a vision of hope in which their broken relationship with God will be fully restored. Is there a broken relationship you could help heal this Advent season?

Second Reading: Paul prays with joy over the partnership he experiences with the believers in Phillipi. What relationships in your life bring you joy?

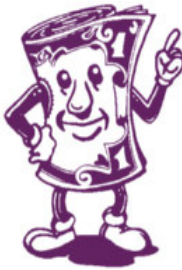

Gospel: Luke is careful to place the activities of John the Baptist in their proper historical and political context, showing how God acts in human history. Can you think of a time in your personal history when you felt God present?

WHAT ARE WE WAITING FOR?

Jesus is coming, and Advent is intended to be a season of preparation, waiting, and longing for the arrival of the Messiah. Advent invites us to grow in spiritual wholeness by entering more frequently into silence, prayer, reflection, Scripture, and the sacramental life of our faith. But how can we achieve this during such a busy commercial season?

Through Scripture, stories, humor, prayer, and song, the mission will focus on different ways to prepare for Christ's coming, how to be more aware of the hopeful longing and joyous expectation of the season and help increase our desire for God by discovering Christ's presence in our lives right now.

Come early and enjoy a cup of soup! Doors will open at 5:00 p.m. Bring a friend!
