OUR VISION

All Souls Catholic Parish aspires to be an inviting faith community where members and newcomers alike are engaged, inspired, and spiritually nourished among friends that become family.

OUR MISSION

As a welcoming and united parish, the All Souls Family of Faith is committed to loving God, loving our neighbors, and inviting others to know and serve Jesus Christ and recognize Him in one another.

Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels.

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD JESUS

Today, as we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we witness a profound moment that bridges Jesus's hidden life with His public ministry. This feast carries deep significance for our baptismal calling and identity as Christians.

In Isaiah 40:1-9, we hear the beautiful words, “Comfort, give comfort to my people.” This prophetic voice announces the coming of the Lord, calling for valleys to be filled and mountains to be made low. This imagery speaks to the transformative nature of Christ's coming – how God enters our world to make straight what is crooked, to smooth what is rough in our lives. Like a shepherd, He gathers His lambs with care, carrying them close to His heart.

The letter to Titus (Ti 2:11-14; 3:4-7) reminds us that through baptism, we experience “the kindness and generous love of God our savior.” This salvation isn't earned through our own righteous deeds, but comes through God's mercy. Through the “bath of rebirth,” we are renewed by the Holy Spirit and become heirs to eternal life. This speaks directly to our own baptismal grace – a gift that transforms us into adopted children of God.

Today's Gospel (Lk 3:15-16; 21-22) is one we read every year, so it is easy to lose sight of just how incredible it is that Jesus wished to be baptized in the Jordan River by His cousin, John. We just spent the last two weeks marveling at the fact that this Savior of ours was born as a baby in a crude stable for our sake, and now this! Stop and contemplate our Lord in all His perfection waiting quietly and patiently in line with a bunch of sinners (like us!) to “lead by example.” His love and humility in serving and self-giving are beyond all telling.

Certainly, the sinless Savior did not need a baptism of repentance! John himself noted that, compared to Jesus, he was not even worthy to loosen His sandal straps. But Jesus humbly made Himself one with His people to draw us to Him and create a relationship with us so that we would be open to His teachings and influence. In response, we should be filled to overflowing with gratitude to such a gracious God — an overflow that must express itself in giving back to God through the sharing of our time, talents, and treasures. When we allow the words and actions of Jesus in the Gospel to enter deeply into our minds and hearts, we will be compelled to give ourselves to Him and others out of love for Him.

What does Jesus' Baptism mean for us today? First, it reminds us that our own baptism is a participation in Christ's baptism. Through it, we too become beloved children of God, filled with the Holy Spirit. Second, like Jesus, our baptism marks the beginning of our mission. We are called to bring God's comfort to others, to be voices crying out in today's wilderness, preparing the way for the Lord in our world.

The Baptism of the Lord challenges us to remember and live out our own baptismal calling. Are we bringing comfort to God's people? Are we allowing the Holy Spirit to work through us? Are we living as God's beloved children? As we conclude the Christmas season this weekend with this feast, let us renew our baptismal commitments. Let us embrace our identity as God's beloved children and, like Jesus, begin anew our mission of bringing God's love and mercy to our world. May we, through the grace of our baptism, become the comfort and hope our world so desperately needs.

Let us pray for the grace to live out our baptismal calling with renewed vigor and dedication, always remembering that we too are God's beloved children, in whom He is well pleased.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today's Readings

First Reading: Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken. (Is 40:5)

Psalms: O bless the Lord, my soul. (Ps 104)

Second Reading: He saved us through the bath of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. (Ti 3:5)

Gospel: After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. (Lk 3:22)

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

Gospel Question:

The Holy Spirit affirms Jesus as the Christ, the beloved Son of God. When do you sense the presence of the Holy Spirit in your life?

1st Reading Question: The prophet Isaiah brought words of comfort and hope from God to the Israelites exiled in Babylon. Is there someone in your life who needs hope for the future?

2nd Reading Question: Paul challenged Titus to reject godless ways and worldly desires. Do you have any family or friends you consider a role model in living an exceptional life? ©LPi

A NEW CHANCE TO WIN EVERY WEEK!

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is an international Christian ecumenical observance celebrated annually from January 18, the traditional Feast of the Chair of St. Peter, through January 25, the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul.

With roots going back over 100 years, the dedicated octave of prayers has been jointly commissioned and prepared since 1966, after the Second Vatican Council, by the Roman Catholic Church's Dicastery for Promoting Christian Unity and the World Council of Churches' Faith and Order Commission.

Each year Christian churches and communities from a different part of the world develop the theme and materials for the Week of Prayer. During this week-long celebration, Christians are invited to gather with their Christian neighbors to join in prayer for Christian unity.

The 2025 theme for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is Do you believe? (Jn. 11:26) Jesus announces the truth of the new Covenant to Martha, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, even if they die, will live. Those that believe in me will never die." He invites a response from Martha when he says, "Do you believe this?"

In 2025, the whole Church commemorates the 1,700th anniversary of the first Ecumenical Council of the entire church at that time, called by the Emperor Constantine at Nicaea (presently in the country of Turkey) in the early summer of 325. The result was an agreed upon Creed, what we today call the Nicene Creed.

This theme, by offering a way to see that faith is not just a static set of beliefs, but an active means of receiving grace, is most appropriate for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in 2025. If faith can raise the dead and conquer all fear, surely faith will bring us the miracle of unity as Christians. Remembering that division, separation and rejection are symptoms of sin, the healing of the Church comes about in the power of the Holy Spirit. We pray knowing to whom it is we pray, as one community. God wills us to reconcile. God wills us to love one another. God will give those who profess the faith of Martha, of Nicaea and of all the holy ones who have gone before us, the precious gift of unity. (www.geii.org)

*Our Father,
 We seek You in so many ways and places in our life.
 We seek You for guidance and for comfort.
 But You have told us that when there is hunger,
 it is up to us to feed the hungry.
 We ask You to help us see you in other Christians and humbly ask You for strength in the search for what we have in common.
 Bless our efforts to look at all the ways we are united in faith, and grant us courage to change our hearts and minds to realize Your will.
 We ask all this through Christ our Lord and brother, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.*

- ✦ Are you looking for ways to experience God? Members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul invite you to share in their ministry of experiencing God by serving people living in poverty. We see Christ in our friends in need and, when we see Christ, we experience God. Please contact us at 708-745-4760 if you are interested in becoming a Vincentian.
- ✦ We are still seeking 8th grade class photos for the years 1991 and 2006 in order to complete the kiosk of St. Ann School class photos in the Narthex. HELP NEEDED, SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 8:00 a.m.
 The Art & Environment crew needs assistance with taking down the Christmas decorations and packing them away for next year. The more hands on deck, the quicker the task will be accomplished! Please consider helping out for an hour or two. This is a great opportunity to earn service hours for Scouts, Confirmation, NHS, etc.

We ask for your prayers for the Hope family and for all of us at All Souls/St. Ann as we say goodbye to our beloved Cindy. For as long as we can remember, she has served the parish in multiple capacities: Sacristan, Eucharistic Minister, Catechist, trainer of altar servers, organizer of the Giving Tree, and launderer of the vestments were some of the many responsibilities she undertook. There is no way to truly quantify the many ways in which we will miss her. Cindy will be waked on Tuesday, January 14 from 3-7:00 p.m. at Schroeder-Lauer, and her funeral will take place Wednesday, January 15 at 10:00 a.m. at St. Ann. Rest in peace, dear friend.

Loving Outreach to Survivors of Suicide (LOSS)

Catholic Charities Loving Outreach to Survivors of Suicide Loss (LOSS) offers in-person and online support groups for adults who are grieving the loss of a loved one to suicide. Since 1979, LOSS has helped guide individuals and families through this challenging grieving process. Our individual and group sessions provide safe, nonjudgmental environments where survivors can share their feelings and experiences. Participants receive information and hope from veteran facilitators who help new members realize that they are not alone, and that they will not feel this confusion and deep sadness for the rest of their lives. LOSS groups are also supported by licensed mental health professionals who meet survivors wherever they are in the grieving process.

GOSPEL

Your Dad says, "Wash your hands, please. It is almost time to eat." After you wash your hands really well, your Dad smiles. He says, "That's my boy. You did a good job!" In today's Gospel, it was time for Jesus to be baptized. After his baptism, Jesus talked to God his Father in prayer. Jesus did everything his Father asked. God was happy with his Son and said, "I'm pleased with you."

Our Sunday bulletin is an important way for us to communicate with you. Producing it every week could be very costly, but through our arrangement with LPi, we do not pay for the printing, saving thousands of dollars each year. LPi arranges for the bulletin to be supported through the generosity of the businesses that you see advertised on the back cover. Most of these advertisers are members of our local community, and many belong to our parish. Especially now, during these uncertain economic times, I urge you to support these advertisers with your patronage. Tell the business owners that you appreciate their support of All Souls Catholic Parish through their advertisements in the bulletin. This is one small way that we can work within our own community to weather the challenges that we currently face. A strong and vibrant parish is good for our community, and a thriving business community is good for everyone!

DO we have a specific cause? Yes! Helping someone in need, offering hope and support. Veterans, single mothers, those with medical conditions, those struggling in general. We not only help those who come to us, we seek out those in need. With over 1600 volunteer members, efforts are put forth 24 hours a day. Our President/CEO is a volunteer. With unbending dedication, it is not unheard of for him to spend 50 hours a week working side by side with volunteers, board members, and store employees defining the very core of who we are.

So, when you choose us for your donations, you are changing the lives of your neighbors in need. You are providing food, clothing, shelter, job training, and hope of better tomorrows. You are helping a veteran in need, a mother who has hungry children, a victim of domestic violence, someone ill who needs assistance to get proper medical treatment, someone who is lonely and dealing with mental health issues, and families who have experienced bumps in the road. YOU are the difference that is building better tomorrows for those in need in our community.
